LOULOU R'S SOMERSAULT.

Perhaps the most inconsistent performer at Ideal Park is B. J. Johnson's Terra Cotta-Marie Foster filly Loulou R. She is very speedy and has a liking for the mud, but has run a couple of good races on a fast track. Yesterday she was in with Provident and Terrific, and taking her last race into consideration she did not seem to have a chance, still her price was forced from 3 to 1, down to 2 to 1, by a press of money. There was nothing to the race. Loulou R got away with a flying start and the farther the lot raced the farther she beat them. Loulou R won, eased up, by eight lengths from Provident. Anna Mayes, also from Mr. Johnson's stable, won her race in a common canter. Her win, perhaps, would not have been so easy had The Sculptor been given a chance at the start. He was turned the wrong way of the track when Mr. Dwyer dispatched the field.

G. G. Moshier's honest filly May Galop upset a good thing in the seven and a half furlong condition race. Fred Foster had his recent purchase Counter Tenor, in what he thought a soft spot and backed him accordingly. The Ruppert cast-off was the best horse, but a trifle short and carelessly ridden, finished just behind first money.

Minnie Miller, well ridden and the natural favorite, won the first race by a neck with a bit to spare. Sauterne, who is a natural mud runner, was at the liberal price of 7 to 5, and more than well handled by Ham won handily.

T. W. Coulter, Ideal Park's favorite owner, got a telegram from his home in New York that his father was not expected to live. Mr. Coulter left for the East at once.

DRASTIC EASTERN ACTION.

Riley Grannan has again been ruled off for alleged corrupt practices on the turf. The Jockey Club, which governs the Eastern turf, is a conservative and narrow body, but it is usually just when it takes sharp action. There have been rumors of a corrupt confederacy on the metropolitan tracks under Jockey Club control for some time. The officials investigated them and waited for Mr. Belmont's return from England before making their decision public. Mr. Belmont agreed with their findings of the stewards. They are startling. Grannan is found guilty of bribing trainers and jockeys and is ruled off for such offenses. Dr. Allen Burrows Jr., is also punished in the same way.

W. M. Wallace, of Kentucky, a relative of Byron McClelland, and owner of The Commoner, The Winner, Roy Carruthers, Remp and Refugee, is banished from Jockey Club courses by the same ruling. His entries will not in the future be accepted. Pat Dunne's jockey, Martin, has been suspended, and Coyle, Jimmie McLaughlin's lightweight, has lost his license. Jockey Taral is reprimanded for accepting a bribe of $500. The Jockey Club also adopted and promulgated this order:

"Any owner, trainer or stable employee who shall, directly or indirectly, make any bet or wager on any race against any horse owned, trained or in the care of such owner, trainer or stable employee, shall be ruled off; or any person who may contribute money to any other person for the purpose of being bet by the receiver against any horse for account of the contributor shall be ruled off, as shall also the person who shall receive such moneys."

There were present at this actionable meeting August Belmont, James R. Keene, James Galway, Andrew Miller, F. R. Hitchcock and F. K. Sturges.

If justly applied to the testimony it gathered and digested, the rulings of the Jockey Club is healthful and timely. The American turf needs discipline. It is far from orderly and law is healthy at all times when properly applied. The balance of punishment is against Western turfman in the ruling. Perhaps this is as it should be. But it isn't in line with the form figures of everyday Eastern racing. The map which caused the action of the Jockey Club officials is not yet on view. One must be given, in justice to the parties convicted. Ever lover of the noblest of sports will accept one with broad, just and clean lines. The m p cannot be given too soon.

Winner—Blk. f. 3, by Michael—Trifle.

Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won hand ridden; second and third driving. Clay rode good race on Minnie Miller. He was in best of the going all the way. Mollie King was interfered with on far turn. She ran a good race. Tradition is a counterfeit. Minnow was weakly ridden.

Winner—Ch. f. 3, by Terra Cotta—Marie Foster.

Post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won pulled up; second driving; third with something left. Loulou R was a good filly to-day and ran away from her field. Her sudden reversal was shocking. Provident ran an honest race. She had much the worst of the start. Terrific won't do.

4053 THIRD RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $300. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

By Mr. Pickwick

Winner—B. m. 5, by Leonatus—Prairie Queen.

Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; next three driving. Anna Mayes had the speed of the lot and was on path all the way. The Sculptor was standing still when start was made. He may have been a factor. Boy never urged him. Roger B was speedy but stopped early. Mirage ran a fair race, but pulled up lame.

Scratched—Sugar, 111.

4054 FOURTH RACE—7 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—B. f. 3, by King Galop—Melrose.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two. May Galop ran a good, game race. He seemed to be beaten on the stretch turn. Counter Tenor was a trifle short, and Soden a bit careless. He was the best horse. Sunburst dropped out of it on back stretch, and came very fast on the end. He would have won had it been a mile. Dejure and Stowaway were out-classed.

4055 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $300. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. g. 3, by Tremont—Semaphore.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily after an early drive for position; second all out; third coming strong. Boy rode excellent race on Sauterne and kept in the path all the way. Winslow was shut off at half mile ground, but finished strong and ran a good race. Canewood was in his own way. B. F. Fly Jr. and Forseen were hardly better.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Dan Honig and Jockey Garner may part. The contract uniting them has expired. Rector, riding for Honig, is Garner's step brother. Garner is to ride the Corrigan horses in San Francisco the coming winter and may become a fixture with the green-white sash.

The rules were changed so that in future book-makers must adjust their credits. The overnight sweepstakes was defined as against the stake claim for such events.

The American Turf Congress did nothing deeply affecting the Western turf at its annual meeting in St. Louis. These officials were elected: President, Alex. Labold, Cincinnati; Vice-President, C. C. Maffitt, St. Louis; Secretary, Ed Hopper, Cincinnati; Treasurer, O. L. Bradley, Lexington. These are all new officers with the exception of Mr. Hopper.
